FEATURED SPEAKERS

Colleen Aynn is a graduate of Sheridan College's prestigious Musical Theatre Performance Program. A professional actor, singer and musician for nearly 30 years, Colleen has studied and performed with many of Canada's top performers. As a theatrical director, Colleen has learned how to craft a presentation for maximum effectiveness and how to connect with an audience. A captivating and insightful teacher, Colleen has broken down these skills into easy-to-implement steps to enhance communication and leadership.

Eva Klein is a Professor at McMaster University in the Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Neurosciences. A clinical and corporate psychologist with over 30 years' experience as an executive coach, Eva teaches courses in change management, leadership and emotional intelligence, and conducting difficult conversations with undergraduate and graduate students, residents and faculty members. Dr. Klein's research interests include identifying the characteristics of late bloomers (i.e., those who succeed later in their careers) and the factors of successful aging.

Malou Twynam is a Career Counsellor at the University of Toronto Mississauga's (UTM) Career Centre, where she provides one-on-one career counselling to undergraduate and graduate students, and facilitates a variety of workshops on career development, post-graduate education options and job search techniques. Malou, who holds Masters degrees in Sociology and Counselling Psychology, also develops web-based resources, workshops, and assessment materials to support self-discovery and career development.

Anne Gaiger is the Assistant Director Employer Relations & Marketing at the University of Toronto Mississauga's (UTM) Career Centre, where she manages a team of employer relations and marketing professionals. An experienced people-development professional, Anne is committed to utilizing skills for the career development of students transitioning out of post-secondary education. Prior to joining UTM in 2009, Anne worked for Bell Canada where she designed leadership training programs for managers.

After a fulfilling 32-year career in post-secondary education, Linda Marshall founded Marshall Connects in 2014. Linda facilitates workshops, and provides consulting services to help organizations and businesses succeed in developing and maintaining strong leadership and team dynamics. Linda is a member of the Canadian Association of Professional Speakers (CAPS), a certified Personality Dimensions Facilitator®, a TV host, and the author of 'Giving Back, How to Find Your Personal Joy and Make a Difference to Others.'
